

Infection Prevention In Critical Care

August 14, 2008, 1:00 pm-2:00 pm

Audio Conference

Last month many of you joined us to hear how your colleagues in critical care are making great progress in eliminating hospital acquired infections.

Having taken some of these ideas home to try, join us again for a call to help you accelerate your improvement. Update us on what you are trying, what's working and what your challenges are.

Some of the speakers from the June program will be joining us to help troubleshoot and give advice on moving forward. As a group we will learn from each others' successes and help solve problems.

If you have it all figured out, we'd love to learn from you too! Please join us to learn and share.
